The screenshot illustrates the Google Drive sync process on a Mac. The top portion shows a Finder window with a sync notification for 'bob@creativetech' (2.05GB, 14% of 15.00GB used). The notification includes options to 'Open Google Drive folder' and 'Visit Google Drive on the web', and lists synced files: 'OS Market Share.xlsx' and 'OS Market Share.xlsx.gsheet'. A 'Sync complete' message with a '6' in a red circle is at the bottom of the notification.

The bottom portion shows the Google Drive application window. The sidebar on the left has 'Google Drive' selected, marked with a '2' in a red circle. The main pane shows a list of files and folders with columns for Name, Date Modified, Size, and Kind. Red circles '3' through '5' highlight specific items: 'Instructions' (Folder), 'Apple IDs (Word)' (Word document), 'OS Market Share (Excel)' (Office spreadsheet), 'OS Market Share.gsheet' (Google Drive Document), and 'Smart Home.gdoc' (Google Drive Document). A '4' in a red circle highlights the 'Personal' folder.
